

PROGRAM A

PIEROGI PINCH

Animation | 1 min 26 s

As a young woman finds herself lost in daydreams while clumsily making traditional pierogies, she invokes the presence of her grandmother, who guides her through the messy ritual. Without words.

INVISIBLE CITY

Documentary | 93 min

Academy Award-nominated director Hubert Davis's acclaimed documentary about transformation – of an inner-city community and of personal identity.

PROGRAM B

WAVE A RED FLAG – VISTAS

Documentary | 4 min

On her way to school, a teenage girl's display of Native pride sparks a celebration of community and culture. Without words.

RACING THOUGHTS

Documentary | 73 min

This is a film about children who thought they were "crazy." Who wanted to die. Who felt fear, anger and hopelessness. Four young people living with mental illness make the courageous decision to open up about their stories.

PROGRAM C

TAGGED

Documentary | 28 min

Playful yet unsettling, Tagged follows the raging debate over the ubiquitous Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) chip. Is it "hip to be chipped," or could RFID implants in humans lead us from surveillance society to totalitarian nightmare?

CHILDREN OF SOLDIERS

Documentary | 52 min

At an age when they should be curious and carefree, the children of Canadian Forces Base Petawawa live in fear. Filmed during a troop deployment to Afghanistan, Children of Soldiers exposes a reality shared by thousands of young Canadians.

PROGRAM D

YANNICK NÉZET-SÉGUIN: NO INTERMISSION

Animation/Documentary | 6 min

Documentary and animation combine to capture a conductor's energy and passion.

THE "SOCALLED" MOVIE

Documentary | 87 min

Meet Socalled, a.k.a. Josh Dolgin. He's a multidisciplinary musician and artist whose unique blend of klezmer, hip hop and funk is blasting through the boundaries that separate the music of different cultures, eras and generations.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

LÉON IN WINTERTIME

Animation | 27 min

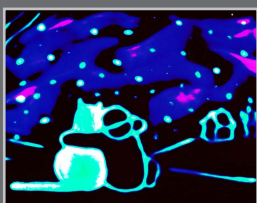

Wintertime is harsh in the land of King Balthasar, especially if you're Léon, an eight-year-old adopted bear suffering from an identity crisis. A honey of a story in which courage trumps winter.

THE SWEATER

Animation | 10 min

An animation of Roch Carrier's classic short story, set in the rural Quebec of his boyhood, when Rocket Richard was king.

SNOW CAT

Animation | 23 min

One cold snowy afternoon, a grandmother mesmerizes her young grandchild with a moving tale of a lonely girl and an unforgettable magical cat.

THE BOY AND THE SNOW GOOSE

Animation | 10 min

A little boy nurses an injured goose back to health. They become inseparable friends. In the fall, the goose flies south, leaving the boy to dream of places where they could fly together. Without words.